

Department: Criminal Justice

Degree Program: Master in Security Management (MSM)

Outcome Goals	Assessment Criteria	2002-2003 Results	2003-2004 Results	2004-2005 Results	Use of Results
Goal 1: Graduates will have a well-grounded understanding of the operation and problems facing the field of Security Management	1. 90% of MSM graduates will score 80 or better on the MSM Exit Exam which will be implemented Fall 2005.	Not applicable, MSM program not implemented until fall 2004	Not applicable, MSM program not implemented until fall 2004	Not applicable, assessment not implemented until fall 2005.	Results will be used to strengthening curriculum and instruction, thus enhancing students' levels of understanding.
Goal 2: Graduates will be proficient in conducting research and public presentations of their research in Security Management.	2a. All research projects requiring use of personal computer applications for word processing, data entry, data analysis and public presentations will be judged acceptable. 2b. 100% of MSM graduates will indicate on MSM Exit Exam that they "agree" or "strongly agree" with the statement, "I feel competent utilizing a personal computer for (1) word processing, (2) data entry/analysis and (3) public presentations".	2a and 2b not applicable, MSM Program not implemented until fall 2004	2a and 2b not applicable, MSM Program not implemented until fall 2004	2a and 2b not applicable, assessment procedures not implemented until fall 2005	Results will be used to adjust research related curriculum, thus strengthening students' research and presentation skills
Goal 3: Graduates will have a clear understanding of the practical applications of Security Management	3. Annual analysis of the 36 hours of professional seminars covering the domains, tasks, and knowledge statements of physical security and security investigations which all students must complete.	Not applicable, MSM Program not implemented until fall 2004	Not applicable, MSM Program not implemented until fall 2004	Not applicable, assessment implemented in fall 2005	Results will be used to change curriculum so that it reflects what is current in the Security Management field, thus providing student with cutting-edge information.