

CAHSI	CNS 0540592
Awarded by:	The National Science Foundation via UT El Paso Subagreement
Title:	“BPC-A: Computing Alliance for Hispanic Serving Institutions” Phase I
PI:	Ann Gates
Co-PI:	Richard A. Aló
Partner/Collaborating Institutions:	University of Texas at El Paso; New Mexico State University, Florida International University; Universidad de Puerto Rico Mayaguez; California State University at Dominguez Hills, Texas A and M Corpus Christi
Start Date:	March 1, 2006
End Date:	February 28, 2010
Overview:	As part of the Computing Alliance for HSIs, UHD contributes to an effort to identify and promote innovative and effective practices aimed at increasing the number of Hispanic students that pursue and complete advanced degrees in Computing and Information Sciences and Engineering (CISE) areas and assume leadership roles in computing.
Total Amount:	$2,200,000
Amount Awarded to UHD:	$159,630
Grant Benefits & Outcomes:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - UHD Benefits and Outcomes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Peer Led Team Learning (PLTL), CSO course development, CAHSI Research Experience for Undergraduates and sponsored faculty workshop for Affinity Research Group Models adding an additional $15,000 to UHD - Other Benefits and Outcomes: 	