Freshman Student Orientation

Freshman Orientation is a MANDATORY TWO-DAY program for all incoming freshman! All incoming freshman must be admitted to the university in order to enroll in an orientation program. Orientation is a two-day event that assists students with their transition to the university. Students are required to attend all parts of the program. Please make sure to consider other commitments (school, work, family, etc.) before scheduling an orientation program. Registration for orientation should be completed at least two weeks prior to the designated orientation date for preparation purposes.

As a freshman student, you are required to take the UHD placement test during orientation so be prepared to test. Other highlights in the program include campus life information, campus tours, and mentor meetings. You will also have the opportunity to meet new students like yourself and current students that are here to assist you with your transition.

Parent & Family Orientation

During the first day of your orientation, we will have a program for your parents/family. Parents and students will be together for some of the orientation activities. Here at UHD we realize that family members are important when helping students succeed in college. The parent and family program is designed to give family members valuable information on UHD. Parents/family members attend Day One of the freshman orientation program. There is no parent/family program on Day Two. The first 2 guests are FREE and each additional guest is $10 (non-refundable). The fee includes lunch, and orientation materials. Please be sure to include the number of guests expected on your orientation registration form.
