To retain course enrollment, appropriate documentation of the pre-requisite must be received at UHD (official transcript to UHD Office of Admissions or test scores to UHD Registrar’s Office).

You are responsible for checking your gatormail account regularly. You will receive notification in your gatormail account once the override has been provided. Then, you are responsible to register for the class. Please note, an override does not guarantee course availability.

The Registrar’s Office will provide notification in your gatormail account of missing prerequisites and administrative withdraw dates. Failure to provide pre-requisite documentation will result in an administrative withdraw from the enrolled class. No refunds will be granted and/or late fees will not be waived.
