Master of Arts in Nonprofit Management

The Master of Arts in Nonprofit Management (MNPM) is a multidisciplinary program that prepares recent college graduates as well as mid- and senior-level administrators to manage and lead nonprofit organizations of all types.

About the Program

The UHD Master of Arts in Nonprofit Management focuses on evaluation, assessment and strategic planning; entrepreneurship; program management; fundraising, revenue generation and grant writing; human resources; marketing and social media; law and ethics; and leadership – board development and team building.

The program was designed by leaders of Houston’s most prominent nonprofit organizations and UHD faculty from multiple disciplines, including Political Science, English, Arts and Humanities, and Business. Each of the courses provide students with hands-on experiences in practicing newly learned skills.

Our degree program, which is completely online, is ranked 5th in the nation in academics and ranked 2nd in affordability.

Graduates of the program will learn to:

- Evaluate a nonprofit organization’s status on leadership and team building; report their findings; and initiate effective interventions to alleviate shortcomings in those areas.
- Organize and articulate ways to improve productivity from that assessment.
- Articulate expected outcomes for an organization; create a strategic plan to assess those outcomes; implement the assessment; draw conclusions from the analysis; and make effective analysis based adjustments to significantly enhance efficiency in the organization.
- Create, implement, and plan data and research driven strategies for recruiting and fundraising.
