Call for Papers

THE DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY, HUMANITIES, AND LANGUAGES of the University of Houston-Downtown welcomes undergraduates from any Houston-area academic institution to submit papers for its 4th annual Student Research Conference. Past conferences have featured up to thirty student presenters who represented the University of Houston-Downtown, Lone Star College, UH-Clear Lake, Rice University, Texas Southern University, and Sam Houston State University.

Details for Submission

Papers must present findings on research on topics in history, humanities, philosophy, and/or foreign literature and cultures. The papers should result in presentations of 15 to 20 minutes (approx. 1500 – 2000 words, 8 – 10 pp.), Each panel of presentations will be followed by 10 minutes of questions and discussion.

Students who present papers of exceptional quality and who offer strong original analysis and research will receive special recognition and a gift card award.

If you have a paper that you wish to be considered for acceptance:
Submit the Registration Form and a 200 word abstract by Fri., Oct. 25 to the portal at https://uhdforms.formstack.com/forms/student_research_conference

Students will be informed of conference paper selections by Fri., Nov. 1. Final Conference Paper is due Fri., Nov. 22, 2019.
