Essay: A graduate assistantship requires an interest in research and/or college-level teaching. The primary purpose is for students to gain research and/or teaching experience by working with MSCJ faculty. In 500 words or less, explain why you are applying for this assistantship and what you hope to gain from it.

Provide an up-to-date resume or CV along with a completed application form. Submit both to the MSCJ Program Director by July 15 in order to be considered.
