

Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT) in Curriculum and Instruction with an area of expertise in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL)

The Master of Teaching (MAT) degree in Curriculum and Instruction with an area of expertise in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL) prepares students for teaching English to non-native English speakers both domestically and internationally in elementary schools, middle schools, high schools, community colleges, universities, community organizations, and private language schools. Within these varied settings, MAT in TESOL graduates teach English as a Second Language (ESL), English to Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL), English as a Foreign Language (EFL), and English for Special Purposes (ESP). In addition, the program prepares graduates to assume educational leadership and teacher training roles in a variety of educational settings.

Note: The courses in this degree plan are taught using a hybrid of face-to-face and online instruction. Program participants with an existing Texas Educator Certification are eligible to earn ESL Supplemental Texas Educator Certification.
