Trangender 101 Workshop
2:00 - 4:00 PM
This event will be held in A-436.
If you've ever had questions about the "T" in LGBTQ, Transgender 101 is your opportunity to get your questions answered in a "there-are-no-stupid-questions" zone. Bring your questions and learn more about the reality of transgender life and struggles in our "cisgender" world. Your first question might be "what is "cisgender"? Join us and find out.

Film Screening/Discussion - Intersexion
11:30 - 1:30 PM
This event will be held in A-436.
Join us for this exceptional documentary examining the tragic history of the intersexed in America, and the high price they have been forced to pay to uphold the unexamined gender identity assumptions of a culture desperate to maintain the socially constructed male/female gender binary.

Transgender in Law: A Presentation by Phyllis Frye, Attorney at Law
12:00 - 1:30 PM
This event will be held in N-1099.
Phyllis Frye--veteran, attorney, and transgender activist--is known as the "Grandmother" of the Trans community in the United States. One trans investigator puts it this way:

"In Houston, we trace our community back to Phyllis. On the international scene, we trace our legal protections to Phyllis. Whether you want to talk about trans healthcare, national trans policy or the very notion of 'community'--we can't have that discussion about that without Phyllis."

Join us and be inspired by Phyllis Frye's story, her journey, and her incredible activism that has given the Trans community greater recognition, rights, and legal protections.
