Socrates Essay 1 and 2

I except your assignment to complete to essays. (Contains commonly confused words and TT2)

This is a great sentence because it doesn't really make sense in relation to the moon's orbit and although I understand the assignment I'm still a fan of Socrates. (Awkward sentence)

Here's one of his most famous quotes. True wisdom comes to each of us when we realize how little we understand about life, ourselves, and the world around us. (Improper citation)

I really liked researching researching Socrates for this essay. (Use the strike through to delete the redundancy of the word researching)

The below content should reflect as "similar" as it is directly copied from Wikipedia.
