

Office of the President
Dr. Antonio D. Tillis

Good day, Gators!

The first day of the fall semester is just days away, and I wish all of you the best as you get ready for the start of the academic year.

Fall 2020 will be a semester like no other at UHD, but I am confident that we have put plans in place to support your success and ensure your safety. The video in this message presents a preview of what to expect this semester and the measures taken to provide all of you with a safe environment for learning and working.

Thank you for your hard work in preparing for Fall 2020. I look forward to a successful semester!

Sincerely,

Antonio D. Tillis, Ph.D.
Interim President, University of Houston-Downtown
