

Curriculum Vitae

Rebecca Price

pricer@uhd.edu

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Adjunct Instructor

2013-Present

- Sam Houston State University, Criminal Justice and Criminology Department 2013-Present
Courses: Criminal Justice and Social Diversity; Substance Use and Abuse; Correctional Strategies; Gender and Crime
- University of Houston, Downtown, Criminal Justice & Social Work Department 2019-Present
Courses: Corrections; Women and Criminal Justice
- University of Nebraska, Omaha, School of Criminal Justice and Criminology 2019-Present
Courses: Women, Crime and Justice; Survey of Criminal Justice

Texas Department of Criminal Justice

1985-2014

Rehabilitation Programs Division, Deputy Director (retired)

- Accomplished career, starting as an entry level clerical employee in 1985, moving on to Counsel Substitute, Correctional Officer, Case-manager, Sociologist, Offender Classification Director and rising to the position of the Deputy Director for Rehabilitation Programs prior to retirement in 2014.
- Extensive background in project management, corrections, offender classification, offender treatment programs, rehabilitation and re-entry, led multiple high profile initiatives to include development, training and program implementation and served as a liaison for Victim Services .

TRAINING/ACCOMPLISHMENTS

ACUE--EFFECTIVE TEACHING PRACTICES 2020

ACTIVE LEARNING SUMMER INSTITUTE, SHSU 2019

COURSE REDESIGN ONLINE CERTIFICATION, SHSU 2018

OUTSTANDING WOMEN IN TEXAS GOVERNMENT FINALIST 2012

EDUCATION

MS, Criminal Justice Management, Sam Houston State University

2002

- Directed Management Project: Revision of the TDCJ offender Classification Plan
Worked with Dr. James Austin to modify how the State of Texas Classified offenders as a result of the "Texas 7" (seven offenders escaped and murdered a police officer in Dallas).

BS, Sociology, Sam Houston State University

1990

PUBLICATIONS--N/A